What is SCAW?

The Scientists Center for Animal Welfare (SCAW) is a 501 (c)(3) non profit educational association of individuals and institutions. SCAW's mission is to promote best practices of humane care, use and management of animals involved in research, testing or education.

Why Should You Become An Institutional Member?

SCAW advances the development, acceptance and implementation of high standards for the responsible use of animals. SCAW's work is respected and used by government regulators, scientists, veterinarians, administrators, others interested in developing responsible animal care and use policies, practices.

NEW SECURE ON-LINE SERVICE FOR INSTITUTIONAL MEMBERS ONLY.

Institutional Members can view the SCAW Newsletter, conference materials, educational and scientific reference materials and timely updates. Current Members will receive a link, user name and password.

SCAW needs to continue increasing its efforts to provide information and resources to the research community, general public and the media. Please help us today by joining SCAW or by renewing membership at the highest level. Membership fees are tax deductible, according to state and Federal laws.

Programs and Services

IACUC Training Workshops are one-day workshops created by SCAW to train members of Institutional Animal Care and Use Committees (IACUCs) and others involved with research animals. Training is recommended by USDA guidelines, PHS policy and AAALAC guidelines. The format lets small groups discuss specific, complex topics that are relevant to IACUC functions. Please visit the SCAW website for more information on upcoming workshops.

SCAW also sponsors an educational Winter Conference and some Seminars/Workshops each year. SCAW will continue to be a major source for fulfilling the training requirements stated in USDA/APHIS/AC Policy 15 that states "IACUC members should be trained in understanding the Animal Welfare Act, protocol review and facility inspections." Please visit the SCAW website at www.scaw.com to see upcoming educational programs and SCAW publications

The SCAW Newsletter includes topics like: national policies, how to comply, industrial concerns, bio-medical research issues in all research animals, book reviews and information on national association meetings.

SCAW also has many Publications on the humane care and use of research animals. A few of which are listed below:

- Revision of SCAW'S Research Animal Anesthesia, Analgesia and Surgery
- The Well being of Animals in Zoo and Aquarium Sponsored Research (New)
- Performance Standards and Animal Welfare: Definition Application and Assessment - Parts I & II
- Genetic Engineering and Animal Welfare: Preparing for the 21st Century
